

Player Dual Participation During A Legion Baseball Season.

There are specific rules for players who want participate in any other sporting event during a legion baseball season. Please see these attached screen shots of the specific legion baseball rules that apply to this.

D. Dual Participation. American Legion Baseball players or teams may participate in other amateur baseball programs; however, the team manager and player must obtain written approval from the department baseball chairman prior to participating in the event and/or tournament. The use of National Form #6 is strongly recommended and is available online at www.baseball.legion.org.

POINT OF EMPHASIS

The American Legion believes team loyalty is a key ingredient for any team sport. Dual participation shall no way interfere with a player's reponsponsibility to his American Legion Baseball team. Once department championship tournament play has begun, the department baseball chairman cannot grant permission to participate in other baseball events, baseball tournaments, exhibition games, showcases or combines. Any player missing any portion of an American Legion national tournament because he participated in an another baseball event, exhibition game, showcase or combine shall be ineligible for post-season tournament play.
